Preface.

THE Visitation of Kent, known as the Visitation of 1619, was taken in the years 1619—1621 by John Philipot, Rouge Dragon, Marshal and Deputy to William Camden, Clarenceux; the official copy, signed by those who entered their pedigrees to record their rights to use the arms tricked, remains in the College of Arms and bears the press mark C. 16. Sims mentions another copy in Camden's handwriting, with additions, among the Philipot MSS., also in the College.

There are several copies of this Visitation, at least eight of which, more or less complete, are in the British Museum. One is in the Library of Queen's College, Oxford, another in the Library of Caius College, Cambridge, and another in the possession of H. Farnham Burke, Esq., Somerset Herald. Of those in the British Museum, four are in the collection of Harleian MSS., and numbered 1106, 1432, 1548, and 6138, three among the Additional MSS., numbered 5507, 5526, and 16,279, and one among the Stowe MSS., numbered 618.

Humphrey Wanley, in his printed summary of the Harleian MSS., thus describes the four in this collection:—

Harl. 1106. “(1) A copie of the Visitation book of the County of Kent, as taken by John Philipot, Rouge Dragon, Marshall and Deputy to William Camden, Clarencieux, in the years 1619, 1620, and 1621, with several additions. (2) Trick of the Arms of Gravesend and Milton. (3) Draught of a very antient gravestone in the Quire of the Church of Minster in the Isle of Shepey, under which a Knight of the name of Northwood was buried. (4) Draught of the gravestone of Elizabeth, Countess of Athol, who deceased the 22 of October A.D. 1377, and was buried in the Quire of Ashford Church in Kent. (5) Arms and Seal of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ in Canterbury. (6) An Alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families whose pedigrees are exhibited in this book.”

Harl. 1432 has a similar description by Wanley. He states that it was written and tricked by Mr. John Saunders the Painter-Stainer, who noted that he began the copy the 1st of October 1645 at 9 of the clock in the night; that he ended the same on Saturday the 31st January 1645. It contains in addition “(14) A printed cut of the Arms or Atchievement of Sir Edward Jervis, Baronet, dated A.D. 1630, with a fanciful motto in mis-shapen Saxon characters, but by the hatching of the arms in order to shew the colours, according to the way found out by Sir Edward Bysshe, I guess that it is not so old.” (15) Confirmation of Arms and grant of a Crest to Matthew Mennes, Esq., by William Camden, Clarenceux, dated 10 July 1616. (16) Descent of Leveson in the handwriting of Sir Henry St. George the elder, inserted after folio 160. (17) Some few Extracts from Evidences, with certain additional Descents, and continuation.

Harl. 1548 Wanley states was written and tricked by Mr. Richard Mundy. It contains (2) Arms of many Kentish families, “hastily tricked in printed Escocheons in way of Alphabet.” (3) A similar description of the Visitation. (4) “Herein I find many enlargements made by Mr. Mundy and by Mr. Robert Dale, but mostly by the former.” (5) The Arms of Randall, Boyce, and others of Kent hastily tricked by another hand.

Harl. 6138 is described as “A Book in folio, containing the arms and pedigrees of Families in the County of Kent, taken at a visitation A.D. 1619, and some part since, with an alphabetical Index at the end. A book of Henry Lily, 235 leaves.”

Add. MSS. 5507 is a copy of the same Visitation, in the handwriting of Hasted the County Historian, with large Additions, some of them to a very recent period (see folio 373).

Add. MSS. 5526 is another copy, the first portion of which as far as page 54 is said to be in the handwriting of Edw. Rowe Mores; the remainder is by another hand unknown. The Arms are tricked in pencil. It was purchased by Hasted at Rowe Mores’ sale in 1779.

Add. MSS. 16,279 contains pedigrees founded upon the Visitation of 1619, and is also in the handwriting of Edward Hasted, with additions by him, and continuations down to the year 1765. The last ten articles are added by a later hand, and include: Copy of Court Rolls of the Manor of Broadham, Surrey, held 17 October 1791 and 6 June 1811 (folio 231); A List of Livings in the Patronage of the Crown (folio 242).

Stowe MSS. 618 is an excellent copy, with the Arms well tricked. It is in a seventeenth-century handwriting, and belonged to John Holland some time in the eighteenth century.

Of the copies in Queen's College, Oxford, and Caius College, Cambridge, they are both similar to Harl. 1106; that in Caius College formed part of the Heraldic Collection of Dr. Knight. Some pedigrees are continued to 1627; others have continuations, mostly in the handwriting of Sir Henry St. George.

Mr. Burke's copy formerly belonged to Percy, Viscount Strangford, and contains a note that it was "Bought at Evans's, Pall Mall, April 10, 1816." The Arms are beautifully tricked, and it appears to have been written by the same scribe as the official copy in the College.

Although the transcript for the press has been made from Mr. Burke's copy, the proofs have been verified with Harl. 1106, which thus become the original from which this Volume is printed, variations which occur in either Mr. Burke's copy, Stowe, or Harl. 6138 being noted.

All the copies of this Visitation here mentioned are professedly copies of the Visitation of 1619, yet no two of them agree in every respect. In some of the pedigrees there are clerical differences, variations in the tricking of the Arms or in additions to the pedigrees themselves, while in some of the copies additional pedigrees have been inserted. The additions in Mr. Burke's copy, Stowe, and Harl. 6138 are printed at the end of this Volume.

My hearty thanks are due to Mr. BURKE for the loan of his MSS., which rendered the task of transcribing more convenient than attending during official hours at the Museum.

This being the Society's Volume for the year 1898, the EDITOR has to apologize to the Members for the delay in its issue, which has been caused by ill-health and other circumstances quite beyond his control.

R. HOVENDEN.

Reader
The Hour approaches
And thou heedest it not
The Fatal moment steals on apace
And thou regardest it not Yet a Little While and thou Also
Shall descend to the Mansion of Forgetfulness
And Mingle with the Dead.
Wouldst thou be happy
Be Virtuous
And Follow her Example.
