Source Citation - Full

Component	Format	Closing Format
Name of author, editor, compiler	Christian name first	comma
Title of the publication or a ship's name	In italics or underlined
City and country of publication	Start of round brackets	colon
Name of publisher, publisher's fuller address		comma
Year of publication	Close of round bracket	comma
Edition number		comma
Volume number		comma
Page number		comma
Folio number		period
Repository - that is, the name and address where the reference work was found, or name and abbreviated address of person who has documents in their possession		period
Archive classification number or repository's call reference number - Dewey book number or other library numbering system, i.e. microfilm or microfiche call numbers		period
Date and/or year reference was actually made - e.g. date of census return, date of church entry, et cetera		period
ISBN and/or ISSN number		period
Any additional comments concerning the reference source e.g. condition of source poor, fair, good.		period
Extract or abstract of the reference information.	Within quotations	period
Copied made and now in your possession - yes/no		period	